

NOTICE OF ADOPTION OF EMERGENCY REGULATIONS OF THE DIVISION OF ELECTIONS

On September 14, 2006, the Division of Elections adopted, as emergency regulations, changes in Title 6 of the Alaska Administrative Code dealing with the replacement of a withdrawn lieutenant governor candidate that was nominated by petition, including the following:

6 AAC 25.215, which establishes a process for filling a vacancy for a non-party candidate for lieutenant governor that was nominated by petition and that withdraws before the general election as provided in AS 15.25.200, was added.

The emergency regulation took effect September 14, 2006 and will expire January 12, 2007. The Division of Elections does not intend to make the emergency regulation permanent.

For a copy of the emergency regulation, contact Kelly Cyrus, Elections Admin Supervisor, Division of Elections, P.O. Box 110017, Juneau, AK 99811-0017; phone: (907) 465-3051; or go to www.elections.state.ak.us.

Statutory Authority: AS 15.15.010

Statutes Being Implemented, Interpreted, or Made Specific: AS 15.25.200; Article 3, Section 8 of the Alaska Constitution

Fiscal Information: The regulations are not expected to require an increased appropriation.
